A PLACE TO STAND

A FILM BY ANNA FERENS

INVITATION

is a fascinating story of how in the 1980s the European Parliament demanded the release of political prisoners and the introduction of democratic freedoms in the countries of the Eastern Bloc.

Based on unpublished archival materials and interviews with MEPs and oppositionists from the Czech Republic, Estonia, Germany, Poland, Slovakia, Romania, the film refers to more than 50 European Parliament resolutions which were adopted between 1980–1990.
